BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Recommends that the life allowance of Rs 5/- per month that was being paid to one Rajamma from the Chamarajeswaraswamy temple may be transferred to the name of her daughter-in-law Narasamma

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The Dy Comr states that the tasdik patti of the temple dt 13-1-1898 ~~[illegible]~~ contains the authority for the grant of the life allowance to Rajamma, since deceased. He recommends that the allowance may be transferred to the name of her daughter-in-law, Narasamma who is reported to have been dependent for her sustenance on the allowance paid to her mother-in-law (while she lived). In support of his recommendation the Dy Comr quotes the case of one Venkata Lakshamma who is stated to have been granted a similar Concession in G.P. No 1086-7 & 18 9-04.

[The ~~Muz Supdt~~ receipt had been sent to the Muzrai Supdt's Office (where the old Muz Secrett records are now kept) for putting up the tasdik patti and the Govt. order referred to by the Dy Comr. I am unable to see how Naraganna can be brought on the Kustik patti after temples and ~~temples~~ notwithstanding. The rider's allowance was often reduced or pension for services rendered after husband. The proper procedure would be if the case is a deserving one to give her an allowance say ½ seer rice and dals from the Sivakute attached to the temple. Is there a Sivakute and what is the allotment thereof.

4 From the file M 7. 230-06 put up herewith, it is seen that there was a sivakoota attached to this temple prior to the year 1898 when the scale was revised ~~and the~~ and in lieu of the Sivakoota a sum of Rs 12-8-0 per mensem was ~~sanctioned thus~~ provided for the supply of provisions.

May the Dy Comr be asked to state whether the applicant can be given any rice allowance from this feeding allotment or from any other source?

SUBJECT.

~~of the temple~~, may be transferred to the name of Nara amma her daughter-in-law and continued to her during her life time, I am directed to state that, as the allowa ~~pen~~ enjoyed by the deceased widow is ~~in the nature~~ a life pension for services rendered by her husband, it will not be correct ~~is not feasible~~ to transfer the same to the name of her daughter-in-law.

It is presumed that ~~the~~ the late widow ~~is~~ but it should be ascertained whether she is in receipt of any pension or has not left any person in whom such pension can be vested for such procedure seems to be to grant her a rice allowance of say ½ a seer of per day. with condiments may therefore be kindly stated whether any rice allowance can be granted to her from the of Rs 45/- per month sanctioned vide O No 3386 dt 24-1-1908 the pupils of
